

Senate Minority Leader Leonard Lance Addresses Municipal Officials

Warren, NJ, Feb. 28, 2007 —

Senate Minority Leader Leonard Lance addressed more than 100 municipal and county officials at a breakfast hosted by DiFrancesco, Bateman, Coley, Yospin, Kunzman, Davis & Lehrer, P.C., at the Somerset Hills Hotel in Warren. Senator Lance, of Clinton, spoke about issues regarding the relationship between State Government and municipalities and answered questions concerning Governor Corzine's proposed budget to the Legislature. The breakfast is one of a series of public policy forums being sponsored by DiFrancesco, Bateman, Coley, Yospin, Kunzman, Davis & Lehrer P.C. throughout the year.

DiFrancesco, Bateman, Coley, Yospin, Kunzman, Davis & Lehrer, P.C. has been providing comprehensive legal services throughout the metropolitan area for over 90 years. The 41-attorney firm offers personal service and quality representation in the areas of municipal and government law; insurance; real estate and land use; labor and employment; environmental; commercial; family law; tax, trusts and estates; banking; education and general litigation.

For more information about DiFrancesco, Bateman, Coley, Yospin, Kunzman, Davis & Lehrer, P.C., visit: www.dbnjlaw.com or call 908-757-7800.

Partners Assemblyman Christopher "Kip" Bateman and Governor Donald T. DiFrancesco welcome Senator Leonard Lance to a public policy forum at the Somerset Hills Hotel.

Senator Leonard Lance (foreground) participates in a question and answer session, moderated by Governor Donald T. DiFrancesco.